

EL DASA

2024 Press Kit

@eldasa

127K+
followers

@eldasaoficial

1M+ followers

@eldasa

705K
followers

@eldasavision

11+K
followers

dasavision

114K
subscribers

SONGS

Mujeres
Me Sentí Tu Dueña
Ideas En La Cabeza
Calibre Pesado
Ni Pa Las Cheves
Tu Nombre

ACHIEVEMENTS

- “El Dasa Pa’ La Raza” was El Dasa’s breakout album, featuring the hit song “Mentirosa,” which opened many doors for him.
- El Dasa was nominated for a Latin Grammy in the category of 'Best Band Album' for his work on “El Dasa Pa' La Raza.”
- In 2014, El Dasa won a Premios lo Nuestro award in the category Solista o grupo regional mexicano revelación del año (Regional Mexican soloist or group revelation of the year)
- Next came the hit songs “Alegre y Enamorado” and “El Hijo del Desierto,” the theme song for Season Two of “El Vato,” a dramedy inspired by El Dasa's life, currently streaming on Netflix.
- El Dasa was the first regional Mexican singer whose real-life events inspired a series for NBC UNIVERSO - “El Vato,” the dramedy that marked the artist’s acting debut.
- Season Two of “El Vato,” the International Emmy Award-winning series for Best Non-English Language U.S. Primetime Program, produced by UNIVERSO and Endemol Shine Boomdog, was translated into 17 languages.
- Winner of Season I of the reality show “Tu Cara Me Suena,” one of the highest-rated programs on Univision, where he received acclaim for his performances as iconic figures like Amanda Miguel, Juan Gabriel, and Cristian Castro, showcasing his exceptional talent and charisma.
- He has successfully brought his music to cities across the United States, captivating audiences in venues ranging from nightclubs to large stadiums.
- In 2012, El Dasa participated in the reality show “Mira Quién Baila,” where he won over audiences with his charisma and talent on stage.
- He became the first Latino to perform on the stage at New York's Times Square in 2014, sharing the spotlight with stars like Miley Cyrus and Celine Dion.
- He has performed alongside notable artists such as Marco Antonio Solís, Vicente Fernández, Paquita La Del Barrio, and Alicia Villarreal, among others.

Highlights reel